Val Jean	male	Reuel	late 2016/early 2017	Fennec fox	10-14 years	Val Jean was caught stealing food during a picnic in El-Chanan. He had a broken leg and since he was left with a limp after it healed, he couldn't be released. So he lives happily with Reuel.

Lines in blue denote a pet who has passed on.						* This is an estimate... and sometimes barely more than a guess. So much goes in to how long an animal lives. I included the lifespan column because, unless they're immortal, I didn't want to have any pets living magically long lives. As sad as it is, it's simply real life that our beloved pets often leave us. In the cases involving mutts, I used a rough average of breeds in that family.
